

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry film reeks of something truly un-democratic and certainly un-American. Since Sinclair is using public airwaves free-of-charge to "serve public interests", I cannot understand how anyone with fair and sound judgement can possibly deem this biased politically divisive characterization of John Kerry as news. Nor can Sinclair justify this propaganda as serving the public interest. The fact that the FCC is allowing this misleading program to air makes one wonder if new people with no political motivations or familial ties to the White House should be running this organization. When the license renewal process takes place it might serve the so-called "public interest" if we the People were more involved in deciding how media ownership is distributed. Thank You
